Guided tour

Join us on a tour lasting 1–1.5 hours, which will give you the chance to discover the diverse landscape of Wakehurst, Kew’s wild botanic garden – a living laboratory of plant collections. Learn more about the varied landscape of over 500 acres, see plants of seasonal interest and discover the fascinating history of the gardens. Plus, find out more about Kew’s conservation work that is carried out by the science and horticultural teams across the Millennium Seed Bank, nursery and landscape.

Please give 30 days’ notice when requesting a guide.
Please note that our Volunteer Guides are subject to availability.
